Filing deadlines for taxing districts

- Budgets and Appropriation Ordinance
Must be filed within 30 days of their adoption. Included with the filing must be an estimate of revenue, by source, for the following fiscal year, signed by the chief financial officer of the district.

- Tax Levies
Must be filed on or before the last Tuesday in December of the given tax year.

- Truth in Taxation
A certificate stating compliance with the Truth in Taxation Law must be filed with the levy ordinance. You may download a sample copy of a Truth in Taxation Certificate*.

12/26/06

- Annual Financial, Treasurer and Audit Reports
Many taxing districts must file these reports within six months from the end of the fiscal year.

Division 1. Levying process

(35 ILCS 200/18-10)

Sec. 18-10. County levies. The county board of each county with less than 3,000,000 inhabitants shall, annually, at the September session, determine the amount of county taxes to be levied for all purposes. Any county with less than 3,000,000 inhabitants which has changed its fiscal year may, at the September session or at any adjourned meeting thereof, instead of determining the amount of all county taxes to be levied for a one-year period, determine the amount of taxes to be levied during a period greater or less than a year as required by the change of the fiscal year. The county board of each county with 3,000,000 or more inhabitants shall, annually, prior to the third Monday of March, determine the amount of county taxes to be levied for all purposes. The amount for each purpose shall be stated separately. All counties shall certify to the county clerk annually, on or before the last Tuesday in December the amounts that they have levied.
